

Regulations Governing the Establishment of Female Faculty's Committee of the College of Engineering of National Chung Hsing University

Passed by the college affair meeting on Mar. 15, 2022

- I. The Female Faculty's Committee of the College of Engineering of National Chung Hsing University (hereinafter as the Committee) has been established to promote the exchange and cooperation among female faculty for them to exert influence and provide diversity in vision and advancement in profession.
- II. The Committee consists of the Dean, Deputy Dean, and female faculty of departments/graduate institutes of the College. The Dean serves as the Chair of Honor. The Committee shall consist of a Chair of Honor and an Executive Secretary, both of whom shall be elected by members to be in charge of general affairs of the Committee.
- III. Works of the Committee are as follows:
 1. Hold activities for female faculty and students of the College for experience sharing and career advancement.
 2. Participate in international community activities for female engineers.
 3. Participate in guild/ association/ society exchange relevant to issues of female engineers.
 4. Work with the University on the promotion and exchange regarding student recruitment and relevant affairs.
 5. Assist in the organization of female talent cultivation programs.
 6. Other matters related to women's issues.
- IV. Chair of Honor shall convene at least one committee meeting every semester.
- V. The Regulations were passed by the college affair meeting for implementation. Any amendments shall follow the same progress.